

Opportunities for employers
in the.....

Seminar Thursday 11 August 2005
10am - 11.30am Sheraton on the Park

"If you believe the unions, AMMA almost single handedly drafted the reforms that will be implemented by the Federal Government"

This Seminar is designed to deliver short and sharp information specifically tailored to ALL employers. It will assist in quickly bringing Business Managers and IR/HR Managers & Officers up to date with the reforms, look at the impact upon your business and consider how you might position your company to maximise the benefits (or reduce the impact) of these reforms.

Topics to be covered:

- The Political state of play;
- Industry Big picture issues;
- An outline of the proposed reforms;
- The Federal Government Position;
- The effect on State Systems and Awards;
- Union nonsense;
- The need for special treatment for those employers working in emergency services areas (eg employers in electricity and gas supply and distribution);
- Maximising the benefits to your business.

Presenter: GERARD BOYCE

Gerard is unrepentant when it comes to advocating the bare bones of why employers need IR reform. He is the NSW Manager of the Australian Mines and Metals Association, the peak employer organisation representing employer interests in the mining and resources sector. Gerard's experience acting for employers across a diversity of industries (including building and construction; electrical contracting, communications; transport; health; aged care; and hospitality) allows him to genuinely speak about IR reform from the employer perspective.

This Seminar will be held at Sheraton on the Park
161 Elizabeth Street on Hyde Park, Sydney 2000
Thursday 11 August 2005 commencing at 10.00am

It is intended to conclude at 11.30am.

Morning tea will be provided after the event.

The cost is $77.00 (including GST).
